

Beyond the Streets

Supporting women across the UK experiencing survival sex or involved in selling sex, through specialist support services, training, research, events and collaboration.

Beyond the Streets is a registered charity: no. 1178421

Trauma-informed, person-centred direct support

Beyond Support

Remote, long-term support service for women across the UK who have been, or are involved in selling sex in any context.

Door of Hope

In-person support service for women in east London who are primarily involved in selling sex in Tower Hamlets.

Whitechapel Women

An in-person and online alternative history tour that celebrates the lives of the women who were killed by the so-called 'Jack the Ripper', and raises awareness of challenges that women still face today.

Book a walking tour, or view the online version:
bit.ly/ww-tour-book

Affiliate Network

National network of organisations to share learning, collaborate and offer connected support for professionals working within this theme. We provide bespoke training, consultancy and good practice guidance.

Research

Working collaboratively with partners to create reports, resources, and contribute to consultations to influence change at service and policy level, via amplifying lived experience voices.

View our latest research:
<https://beyondthestreets.org.uk/learn-more/#resources>

www.beyondthestreets.org.uk
0300 302 1122 | office@beyondthestreets.org.uk

Training

For third sector and statutory professionals working with women involved in selling sex, with a strong focus on trauma informed practice and woman-centred approaches.

Book a session:
bit.ly/BeyondStreetsTraining

